

Don Wayne
1922 – 1997

Inducted 1998

Don Wayne was an award winning television news anchor, reporter and correspondent who brought the news home to the Miami Valley. He served as a foreign correspondent in Vietnam, conducting interviews and broadcasting them back home. He also covered the Iran hostage situation, and interviewed many Dayton notables, including “Boss” Kettering and John Glenn. He provided voiceover narration for films used by Wright Patterson Air Force Base, narrated a documentary about the Dayton flood and often served as Master of Ceremonies for the Aviation Hall of Fame ceremonies. Don Wayne is remembered as the voice of Dayton, a fine news journalist and a genuinely nice guy.

*The Dayton Region Walk of Fame is located on both sides of West Third Street between Shannon and Broadway streets and on Williams Street in the Wright Dunbar Historic District of Dayton, Ohio.
